My Brother found this in a storage auction many years ago and we have been wondering if there was anyone who could determine it's value as now he wishes to sell it as is going to a nursing home and doesn't need it any more...the barrle is marked Lampagyar Budapest it has a serial number of 78538 a small M in a circle it is an air rifle and the barrl=ell breaks under to cock the main spring....any one with Ideas, I only find .22 cal rimfires with this name.....

like these guns, Gilly:

Not especially valuable, I'm afraid, as they were quite cheap when new and like a lot of airguns coming out of Eastern Europe, were not of the highest quality. They do have a following among some collectors, though.
